Health and Strength RESTORED

BY THE USE OF
Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Mrs. M. A. Cumming, of Yarraville, Victoria, Australia, says:

"About a year ago, I had a severe attack of Influenza, which left me very weak, without energy, appetite, or interest in life. Obtaining little or no relief from doctors, or from the many remedies recommended to me, I finally tried Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and from that time began to gain health and strength.
I continued the treatment until fully recovered, and now have very great pleasure in telling my friends of the merits of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and the happy results of its use. I consider it the best blood-purifier known."

Has Weyler Resigned?—Autonomy Discussed in Madrid.

The Havana press demands that Madrid shall sustain Captain General Weyler's decree suspending the foreclosure of mortgages and liens upon property, to avert widespread failure in business circles.

A story was current in Havana that the captain-general had resigned and was to be succeeded as governor-general by Primo y Vega and as general-in-chief by Polaviejo. The report is strongly denied by officials at the palace.
Premier Canovas denies it at Madrid.

A letter from Placetas indicates that Maximo Gomez is marching toward the Puerto Principe border to meet and hurry westward additional reinforcements.

Batanabo reports that the rebels burned a sugar mill and two big tobacco warehouses in the suburbs of the town yesterday.

William Leavitt, one of the prisoners taken in the capture of the Competitor expedition, has been transferred to the hospital, suffering from yellow fever.

The rebel leaders, Octavio and Agramonte, are said to have been wounded in a fight at Cangre, in the southeastern part of Havana province. Thirty insurgents are said to have been killed.

The Madrid Herald has an article headed, "One Way or the Other," which said: "It is true that Spain should abandon the middle road and half measures and either grant autonomy to Cuba with an understanding with the United States, or abandon diplomacy and depend wholly on Spain's military power to end the war."

La Discussion, an autonomist journal of Havana, gives great prominence to the Herald's article. It expresses surprise, saying the right of a nation to control its domestic affairs ought not to be challenged. Speaking of the protest of the United States government against General Weyler's decree relative to the collection of debts, it maintains that the decree favors the American creditors, whose principal claims, it states, are not secured by Cuban land, but against contractors. To sell off lands now would cripple those who owe Americans and depreciate the American claims. "The largest claim of an American," it says, "is $800,000, held by Perkins, of New York, and secured by a sugar plantation in Cienfuegos district."

Awful Tragedy at the Coronation Festivities.

A terrible panic, resulting from the great crush of people at the popular feast at Moscow on May 30, in honor of the coronation of the czar, caused the trampling to death of many people, including a woman delivered of a child during the excitement.

By dawn the mass of peasants about the tables was really enormous, and all were desperately hungry, some having fasted for nearly 24 hours. The police did everything possible to keep back the crowd, but suddenly the masses pressed forward and swept everything before them. They overturned benches and tables, trampling hundreds under foot and crushing the life out of a great number.

Among the dead found on the plain were ladies evidently of high rank, dressed in the finest silk and adorned with jewels.

The disaster occurred between 5 and 6 o'clock in the morning.
It was intended the banquet should commence before noon, but the immense throng that gathered became so dense that the attendants were overpowered and thrown to the ground in the mad struggle which commenced for food, and many of the attendants are among the dead.

It was nearly 10 o'clock at night when the facts of the disaster were made public. The people in the city were slow to believe the disaster was as great as reported. A bulletin said 313 bodies had been recovered and that 470 persons had been injured.
But very shortly afterward, at 11 o'clock exactly, official notice was posted saying the list of dead amounted to 1135 persons, including those dead from injuries, after removal from the plain.

Great Britain Adjudged Liable for the Soudan War.

A dispatch to the Times from Cairo regarding the decision of the mixed tribunal upon the appeals of the French syndicate against the use of the Egyptian reserve fund for the expense of the campaign up the Nile has caused a decidedly bad impression in London. The Times' correspondent wired that it was an open secret that the tribune had come to the decision that the Egyptian government cannot make war against the khalifa, or even resist a Soudanese invasion without the consent of each member of the debt commission. This decision, which it is said will be announced Monday, in every way supports the French contention and evidently means that Great Britain will have to advance Egypt the funds necessary to push the expedition forward.

In the meanwhile, news from the front is very satisfactory for the British military authorities.
Troops and stores are advancing up the Nile without a hitch and deserters from the dervishes report that the arrival of British Indian troops at Suakim has created a strong impression in the Soudan, as the dervishes, it is said, now anticipate a combined advance from Suakim and Akassheh. The khalifa is said to greatly fear an attack, and Osman Digna is reported to be greatly discouraged by his recent defeat, and to have advised the khalifa that unless reinforced, he intends to retire still further from the Red sea.

LEGISLATURE IN SESSION

THE WIDE TIRES ACT GETS AN-OTHER CHANCE.

The Bill Regarding the Registration Act Passes Second Reading in the Senate—House Proceedings.

NINETY-NINTH DAY, JUNE 13TH.

THE SENATE.

After the usual preliminaries in the Senate this morning, including a little longer prayer than usual from the Chaplain, Minister King announced that the President had signed the bill admitting certain California wines duty free, the bill setting apart portions of the waterfront in Hilo for public purposes, the License Act and the Income Tax Law.

The usual communication from the House concerning business transacted was read.

Senator Lyman called attention to Rule 78 of the Senate in relation to the proceedings had yesterday on the vote to table the report of the Conference Committee on the wide tires act.

President Wilder said he had already considered the matter and the rules bearing thereon and had come to the conclusion that the entertaining of a motion to lay the report of a conference committee on the table was clearly illegal, on the ground that such a motion was distinctly out of order under the rules. He quoted authorities to sustain his position and ended by making the announcement that the report would again come before the Senate under the head of unfinished business. This ruling was not appealed from.

A message from the President containing a report from the Fresh Meat Commission was received. The report states that the Commission had done nothing owing to the chairman being too much engaged with other business and the death of J. T. Waterhouse and suggesting that the Commission be retained for another two years and that a new member be appointed in place of Mr. Waterhouse. On motion the report was received and referred to the Executive.

The conference report on the wide tires Act then came up for consideration.

Senator Brown moved that the Senate do not concur in the majority report.

Minister Cooper argued in favor of retaining the bill, saying that although the bill was not introduced by the Executive, the entire cabinet was in favor of its passage. The President himself drew the bill and took a lively interest in it. He hoped the Legislature would agree on the bill and give it a fair trial.

Senator Brown opposed the bill, saying it was useless to encumber the statutes with it.

Senator Baldwin also opposed the bill, saying that the provisions of the bill could not be enforced on plantations and the country districts.

Senator Hocking detailed his experience with tires in eight years of teaming on Maui.

Senator McCandless closed with a strong argument in favor of the bill.

The motion to not concur was carried by a vote of 7 to 4.

Senator Brown then moved to adhere to the bill as sent down by the Senate. Carried by the same vote.

The act amending Section 1 of the Kapiolani park act passed this session was read first and second time and passed. The bill merely corrects a clerical error in the other bill.

House Bill 62, repealing the Registration Act, was read the first time and passed. On the second reading Senator Lyman asked the object of repealing the bill.

Minister Cooper said it was carrying out a measure agreed on by a unanimous vote of the Senate caucus.

Senator Brown said he was not present at any caucus nor bound by its action. He was opposed to the bill in the start but now that it had become law he believed in upholding it. The only objection to it was purely a sentimental one, the thumb mark.
There was nothing in the Act requiring a man to make his thumb mark, there was not even a ghost of a rule or order of the Minister of the Interior concerning the thumb mark. The Executive could eliminate that objectionable feature at will, or could authorize the registering officer to use his discretion and exact the thumb mark only from persons who could not write.

Minister Cooper said the objection to making such a regulation was the discrimination in favor of Europeans against Asiatics.
One of the main objects of the bill was to assist in collecting personal taxes but it had been found that other and more adequate means for that purpose had been found, as witness the wholesale arrests recently. The objections to the bill were not sentimental, the bill was repugnant to the feelings of every white man. The corporations were opposed to it and with the exception of the Attorney General the Cabinet was opposed to it. Minister King had not previously put himself on record but he was authorized to state that he was in favor of repealing the Act.

Senator Baldwin said he voted for the bill because he thought it was wanted by the mechanics of the country. There were other objections to the bill than the thumb mark, the principal ones of which were the provision requiring the constant carrying of the registration certificate on the person and the tourist clause.

The bill passed second reading, several members not voting, and was made the special order for Monday.

House Bill 60, amending the Land Act and defining the procedure in cases of forfeiture of time payments on sales of land at auction, passed first, second and third reading unanimously.

The House concurrent resolution placing the records of the Legislature under the control of the Minister of the Interior was adopted.

Senator Schmidt from the Committee on Accounts presented a final report auditing and allowing bills to the amount of $263.50.

Adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Minister King made the announcement of bills signed by the President.

The Finance Committee to whom was referred the proposition to give the Clerk 65 days in which to complete his work of typewriting the minutes of the session reported in favor of accepting the bid of F. W. Makinney, who offered to do the work for $250. Laid on the table for consideration.

Senate Bill 57, relating to naturalization of aliens, passed third reading, as did Senate Bill 58, additional expenses of the Legislature.

On motion of Rep. Robertson the veto of President Dole on House Bill 56 was taken up. He said the point made by the President that the bill was faulty through indefinite phraseology was well taken, and therefore moved to lay the bill on the table.
Carried.

The matter of the typewriting the minutes of the session was finally settled by allowing the Clerk of the House fifty days in which to do the work.

On motion the janitor was allowed $1 per day for the session.

The wide tires Act was received from the Senate and action deferred thereon to Monday.

At 11:30 the House adjourned.

A portrait enlarged from small
